Mainstay Window Art Display Through March 31

The Mainstay is proud to have a gorgeous display of 30 pieces of artwork hanging in the windows facing Main Street during the month of March. The work was created by the students of Kent County art teacher Teresa Jetton in her classes at both Rock Hall Elementary School and Galena Elementary School. Check it out and be inspired!

Hoot and Holler Friday March 23 8pm

Influenced by the enduring spirit of traditional Appalachian music, Hoot and Holler is at its core Amy Alvey and Mark Kilianski, tonight joined by Brad Kolodner on banjo and Alex Lacquement on bass. After cutting their teeth in Boston's music scene, they toured nationally while living in their camper and now call Asheville, NC their home. Their music is honest and fresh. Tickets $15 online or $18 by phone or at the door.

Resonance: Poughkeepsie Playlist Sunday March 25 3:00 pm

A National Music Festival Event
Tickets available only at the NMF website: nationalmusic.us

Todd Marcus Jazz Orchestra Friday March 30 8pm

Todd Marcus returns with his nine-piece jazz orchestra. The instrumentation, compositions and arrangements create a rich sound that incorporates straight-ahead jazz with influences from classical to Middle Eastern themes. Tickets $20 online or $25 by phone or at the door.

Tom Principato Saturday April 14 8pm

Blues man Tom Principato has spent 40+ years as a guitarist and singer, based in his hometown of Washington, D.C. He led the band Powerhouse and has worked with Geoff Muldaur, Big Mama Thornton and James Montgomery, among many others. His solo career has seen eleven albums, including "Live And Still Kickin'" in 2015. Tickets $20 online or $25 by phone or at the door.

Dena DeRose Saturday April 21 8pm

The Mainstay is thrilled to present Dena DeRose, performing with her trio. A dozen CDs since 1998, an international resume, equally at home with standards and her own compositions, this acclaimed singer and pianist has been called, "... the most creative and compelling singer-pianist since Shirley Horn." Joel Siegel, Washington City Paper
Tickets $17 online or $20 by phone or at the door.

Julian Brezon Ensemble Sunday April 22 4pm

The Hedgelawn Foundation Classical Series presents Peabody at The Mainstay

Saxophonist and composer Julian Brezon draws inspiration from literary works and visual art. He has performed at venues across Maryland and his forthcoming debut album, The Deep Light, represents the honing of several years' worth of compositions for jazz septet. Brezon is currently pursuing a Graduate Performance Diploma at the Peabody Conservatory. All tickets $15.
