Mainstay Events April 28-May 28 2018

Mainstay Mondays each Monday* at 7pm. See the back of this flyer for details.
Joe Holt at the piano with talent from the Mid-Atlantic region. Schedule on reverse.

Ben Price and Cliff City Saturday April 28 8pm

Cliff City plays a mix of Indie folk and pop and features high school senior Ben Price on guitar and vocals. Ben has studied classical Spanish guitar with Tom Anthony and performed at various local events. Bassist Gabriel Warner, also a senior, and 17-year-old drummer Nick Basham are joined by Alex Spry on lead guitar. Special thanks to The Peoples Bank for supporting young artists. All seats $10.

John Thomas Friday May 4 8pm

Mainstay Programming Manager and accomplished sax player John Thomas performs with his modern jazz quartet. Tonight, John pays tribute to Dexter Gordon, featuring selections from Gordon's greatest Blue Note era records. His quartet features Todd Simon on piano and Shawn Simon on bass. A composer, performer and educator, John Thomas is the embodiment of the 21st century musician. Tickets $17 online or $20 by phone or at the door.

Teodora Adzharova Sunday May 6 4pm

Peabody at The Mainstay supported by The Hedgelawn Foundation

Powerhouse pianist Teodora Adzharova, born in Bulgaria, came to the U.S. on full scholarship to study with concert pianist Neil Rutman. She is completing a Doctorate in Piano Performance at Peabody Conservatory, again with full scholarship, under Ellen Mack. At The Mainstay she will present keyboard works by Robert Schumann and Dimitri Shostakovich. The final Hedgelawn Classical Series show of Spring 2018. All seats $15.

Yacine Boulares and Ajoyo Thursday May 10 8pm

AJOYO is a joyful ceremony blending African tradition, jazz and soul, featuring the talents of vocalist Sarah Elizabeth Charles. Originally from Tunisia, Yacine Boulares has played sax, composed and arranged for Cameroonian musicians such as former Fela Kuti drummer Jojo Kuo, for the late Martino Atangana and for Placido Domingo's latest album, "Encanto Del Mar." Tickets $17 online or $20 by phone or at the door.

Yard Sale Fundraiser at The Mainstay Saturday May 12 8am-2pm

The Mainstay is having an indoor yard sale! We are seeking donations of items to sell to benefit The Mainstay, so have a look through your shed or attic and turn those unwanted objects into good will. To arrange a time to drop off items, please contact Becky Byrd at bgoodbyrd@verizon.net. Or just bring them with you to a concert.

Ken and Brad Kolodner Quartet Friday May 18 8pm

The dynamic father-son duo Ken and Brad Kolodner are joined by Rachel Eddy on fiddle, guitar and vocals, and Alex Laquement on bass. Regarded as one of the most influential hammered dulcimer players and fiddlers in North America, Baltimore's Ken Kolodner joins forces with son Brad, a rising star in the clawhammer banjo world, to bring traditional and original fiddle tunes and songs. Tickets $15 online or $18 by phone or at the door.

Chester River Youth Choir Sunday May 20 4pm

Join us for an afternoon of choral arts. The Chester River Youth Choir will bring an encore performance of their "Seasons of Song" concert. This family-friendly event features songs that take us through the seasons of the year. The a cappella ensemble River Voices will follow with their program entitled "New Day!" featuring songs of seasons and love. Free Admission. Donations to benefit the Chester River Youth Choir are requested.

The Mainstay is economizing and you can help! Please consider receiving all future concert info by email instead of by printed and stamped mail. Just send an email and say "No More Paper" to info@mainstayrockhall.org
